12. How many mistakes can you find in Fred's letter to his friend?

*Hi!
It's ages since I had a letter from you.
I'm writing to say you about my new school. There is only 16 students in my classroom. I've already started like them. There are all football fans and like playing computer games, so we often spend great time together.
Hope you'll visit me soon.
Good wishes,
Fred*

14. What terrified Henry most was:

- A) 'My Yorker' B) 'Portjiggal' C) 'Grease' D) 'Cut up'

Ordinary words can be confusing for an eight-year-old kid. People say things to him, and he hears them, but hears them just the way they sound. And the word, or the image conjured up by the word, sticks in his mind. Grown-ups go on holiday to 'My Yorker' or 'Portjiggal'. Or 'Grease'. Grease sounds a horrible place. He was once told about a lady who was very cut up because her daughter had married some good-for-nothing. The poor lady, all cut up, haunted his nightmares for weeks.
